Measuring and Analyzing What the Employees Really Understand

Dates: April 10 - 1:00 - 2:00 PM ET

Registration link: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/5463791425259631361>

What is the overall knowledge in your credit union? What is an employee's ...nowledge about any regulatory topic?

Regulators have been paying particular attention in recent years to critical areas such as anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing, privacy, employee health and safety, workplace violence and harassment, anti-fraud measures and consumer protection.

The anti-money laundering training in your learning management system is only the first step in helping your employees understand what they need to know to meet and exceed compliance expectations.

This webinar is for administrators in your credit union to show you the tools you have available to drill down into the exams by topic, by position, or for an individual employee. This webinar will also review coaching, discussion tools case scenarios and tips.
